

Twilight Garden Tour 2022 Evaluation Results (49 responded)

1. 27 had attended TGT previously and 11 came for the first time this year. Others did not respond to this question.
2. Where they came from:
 - Washburn 33
 - Sawyer 4
 - Burnett 5
 - Barron 4
 - Polk 2
 - Other 2
3. How they learned about TGT:
 - Newspaper 15
 - Radio 0
 - Spooner Ag Station Facebook 6
 - North Country MGV website 4
 - Master Gardener word of mouth 27
 - Email 2
 - Signs on the road 4
4. What they enjoyed most :
 - UW faculty and specialists speakers 19
 - Overview of teaching and display gardens 15
 - Monarch and Pollinator Sanctuary 15
 - AAS gardens 10
 - Vegetable gardens 17
 - Demonstrations/displays 22
 - Wine and vegetable tasting 26
 - Tractor tour 2
 - "everything" 3
 - The people 1
5. What gardening topic/problem/ideas did they want more information on:

Fruit ((especially unique fruits like persimmons and kiwi), how to cluster potatoes and not hill them, deer resistant perennials, how to prevent and treat blight and other fungus (ie tomatoes and apples), "vineyard at house and how's that apple tree you pruned at the class last year?", aquatic invasives, drought conditions, Japanese beetles (several mentioned this), making wine, tomato green house, dairy sheep, best time of year for fertilizing vegetable gardens, soil testing demonstration, shrub choices, garden planning, seed exchange, soil health, when and what to use to mulch (can you mulch with fabric?) , Dieses (daisy?) growing tips, insects in the garden, seed saving, pest management, pests, garden design tips----what seems to work well.
6. What comments , suggestions, or concerns they shared:

Excellent, great work, liked it all, nice tractor ride with lots of information on the trail plots, hayride and farm to table.....great, zinnias, yellow tomatoes, grapes, hops, Japanese beetles on grapes," spotted knapweed is a pioneer and does not compete well once other plants colonize and karner blue (butterflies?) LOVE spotted knapweed", especially likes the Farmers Market and Fort Folle Avoine booths, this is a terrific program, I wish it would be more than one day, Beautiful day, great instructors, good displays, Promote Ag Ed ,a Always learning, very beautiful, great job, beautiful theme, wonderful evening, thanks to all the volunteers, will be back next year, and many more "thank yous".